Bogdan Iasinovschi

Senior Integration Developer at Fortech
Cluj-Napoca

Summary

I now act full time as a Senior Integration Consultant for the largest Pharmaceutical company in Europe, on behalf of an outsourcing company from Cluj-Napoca, with whom I collaborate.

Constantly tackling complex problems, finding appropriate solutions, and architecting various projects and tasks.

Working with all known data types and protocols, APIs, Jenkins, groovy scripts, developing Java custom tools, doing advanced macros in Excel, and many more.

Managing projects and driving the communications, with developers and managers of any levels throughout the company, for implementing various tasks, some of them critical and extremely sensitive.

Specialized in APIs - I am the WSO2 expert of the team. I provide guidance and assistance to all my colleagues that struggle with their tasks in this area.
